Our Training

Preventing & Responding to Sexual Harassment in the Workplace

A 3-hour interactive workshop delivered in-person or online to employers and employees and tailored to meet individual needs.

Sexual Harassment First Responders

This is designed to empower those most likely to receive disclosures, equipping people with the tools they need to respond effectively.

Sexual Harassment Investigation

This training equips professionals with the skills to support survivors and conduct trauma-informed, victim-focused investigations.

One-to-One Prevention Courses

Specialist one to one course for staff who have displayed inappropriate sexualised behaviours.

Topics discussed include:

- The impact of sexual harassment on individual and organisational wellbeing.
- What behaviours constitute sexual harassment.
- How to report sexual harassment.
- The law relating to sexual harassment.
- How to create a zero-tolerance approach to sexual harassment in the workplace and improve the culture of the organisation.
- Creating a safe, productive environment for all.

Safeline is an independent charity that supports those affected by sexual abuse and works to prevent its occurrence.

We are experts in safeguarding and have a deep understanding of how to keep people safe.

Our training goes beyond workshops. We can offer advice, information, and support on issues relating to sexual abuse and harassment in the workplace.

Working with Safeline fosters a safer workplace and helps fund vital services for survivors of sexual abuse and harassment.
